Native Luau Scheduled at Polynesian for June 26th

"Let's Go Native Luau" is the theme of the exotic island feast and festival to be presented by The Polynesian Restaurant in Torrance on Sunday, June 26, to which the public is invited by advance reservation. The colorful luau, beginning at 2 p.m., will feature continuous entertainment by a host of leading island artists from Samoa, Hawaii and Tahiti. Freddie Letuli and his Samoans will spark the program with spectacular South Seas sword dances and primitive fire dances of Tahiti.

DANCING FRIDAY & SATURDAY

TE 5-2992 FOR RESERVATIONS

Authentically prepared foods-of-the-islands will be served during the day-long festivities on The Polynesian's tropical lanai.

The "Let's Go Native Luau," produced by Pete Reitz, will be highlighted by ancient rituals and chants at the opening of the "Imu," plus dancing by the lagoon to the romantic music of two native bands. Tickets are now available at The Polynesian.

The Torrance Babe Ruth League will hold a dime-a-dip dinner at Torrance Park Saturday following a doubleheader at Del Amo Field.

TABLES TURNED . . . Dick Miller, who plays the part of a television writer, gets "the business" from real estate saleswoman, Edna Irwin, in a scene from "Gazebo," to be staged by P.V. Players June 23, 24, and 25. In this scene, Miller is being told that he is a "typical emaculated American man, fighting for his virility."

"PORPOISE ROOM" PERFORMERS . . . Headlining the new show at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes are The Wilder Brothers and their Swinging Sextet. The versatile entertainers, renowned for sparkling comedy and music, just opened in the "Porpoise Room."

Local Resident Given New Post

Gordon A. Goodrich has been appointed sales manager of Automation Development Co., it was announced yesterday by Walter E. Peterson, president.

Goodrich, who lives with his wife and two children at 21913 Ocean Ave., will direct the sales program of the company's products and systems for the automation of industrial production equipment.

Goodrich was western sales manager of D&R Ltd. of Santa Barbara before joining ADC. Previously, he has served as sales engineer with Fairchild Control Corp.

ADC is a subsidiary of Lerco Electronics Inc.
